Akron Community Foundation’s mission is to improve the quality of life in the greater Akron area by building permanent endowments and providing philanthropic leadership that enables donors to make lasting investments in the community.
Akron Community Foundation helps good people do great things: donors who are compelled to give back to their community; nonprofits that provide critical lifelines to residents in need; and board and staff members who work tirelessly, listening, learning and making thoughtful decisions that positively impact our quality of life.

The challenges of the past year demonstrated just how important our community foundation is in Summit County. In the midst of a devastating economic downturn, arguably the worst since the Great Depression, Akron Community Foundation’s board approved a record $8 million in funding at a time when our friends and neighbors needed us the most. Our prudent, long-standing grant-making policy ensures the foundation will be here to meet the needs of future generations, as well.

Akron Community Foundation helps good people do great things…

During our 54-year history, the foundation has reinvested $78 million in our community. This year, we built on that proud legacy and set the foundation’s first strategic grant-making priority. During the education quarter, 60 percent of our unrestricted funding supported early learning programs, the returns of which will be exponential, both for the children touched and the community they enrich.

As we move forward, we will continue to increase awareness about the foundation and its unique contribution to Summit County, build permanent resources, and forge partnerships with grantees and other funders to maximize our impact. By reaching out to contributors and prospective donors, we will help them invest with confidence in the causes they care about most.

To those of you who have entrusted your time, talent and treasure to Akron Community Foundation and its 326 funds, we thank you. Throughout this report, you will see examples of how your support is helping good people do great things throughout our community. The board and staff look forward to partnering with you to accomplish even greater things in the years to come.

Our regards,

Greg McDermott
BOARD CHAIR

John T. Petures Jr.
PRESIDENT & CEO
helping good people do great things
Family is important to Eileen Burg. She and her late husband, former First Energy Chairman and CEO H. Peter Burg, went to great lengths to provide a nurturing household for their children. Each night included a family dinner followed by book-reading and game-playing. “We worked at giving our children roots so they could grow their wings,” Eileen said.

Today, the beneficiaries of those wings are her grandkids, who reflect the same values she and Pete instilled in their own children. Eileen relishes watching them grow up and reflects fondly on the loving relationship they formed with her husband. “Pete loved being a grandpa,” she said. “He was such a natural at it.”

UPON HIS PASSING, EILEEN FELT COMPELLED TO KEEP GRANDPA PETE’S SPIRIT ALIVE FOR THE COMMUNITY’S BENEFIT. SO, SHE ESTABLISHED THE H. PETER BURG FUND OF AKRON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, FROM WHICH SHE MAKES GRANTS THAT SUPPORT CAUSES NEAR AND DEAR TO HER AND PETE’S HEARTS.

Among those causes is early childhood education, a passion Education Aide Dilisa Townsend shares. Several days a week, between childhood development classes at the University of Akron, she leads Born Learning play groups at various Akron Metropolitan Housing Authority locations.
Through Born Learning, Dilisa encourages and equips parents to become their children’s first teachers, using everyday activities as teachable moments.

“And the need for such programming is great in public housing,” Dilisa said. And she should know: She spent 13 years raising three sons in AMHA’s Summit Lake Apartments. “Sometimes you just need someone to say, ‘It’s OK; we’ll do this together,’” she said.

THAT’S EXACTLY WHAT DILISA DID FOR NACOLE RANDALL, A FELLOW SUMMIT LAKE RESIDENT. NACOLE AND HER 2-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER MYA HAVE ENJOYED DILISA’S BORN LEARNING PLAY GROUPS SINCE 2007, THANKS TO FUNDING FROM THE H. PETER BURG FUND.

Nacole is grateful for the fund’s support, as well as Eileen’s eagerness to help families like hers. “Early education is important for our kids,” she said.
Education also is a critical component of the parent-child relationship, Dilisa explained. In fact, one of her favorite things about leading play groups is seeing young children connect with their parents in a brand new way. “I can just see it click,” she said. “They’re thinking, ‘Isn’t my mom awesome?’” For Dilisa, cultivating that bond is a reward in and of itself.

For Eileen, the reward is seeing Pete’s compassion impacting people’s lives even today. “I get to witness first hand the reactions of people who benefit from the fund. It’s emotionally and spiritually rewarding,” she said. “It also keeps me close to Pete.”

YOU, TOO, CAN DO GREAT THINGS. CALL DR. SUZANNE ALLEN, VICE PRESIDENT OF DEVELOPMENT, AT 330-376-8522 TO LEARN MORE.
Are you passionate about improving the lives of those around you? For 54 years, Akron Community Foundation has been empowering people just like you to do great things in our community.

With an annual gift to the Community Fund, you can help meet our community’s most pressing needs today and in the future. With a $5,000 or $25,000 gift, you can establish your own named fund that supports the causes you care about most. Our board’s prudent financial oversight and our program staff’s grant-making expertise will help you fulfill your philanthropic wishes while establishing your legacy in the community.

There are many advantages to giving through Akron Community Foundation:

1. IT’S EASY: Foundation staff handles your fund’s set-up, investments and grant administration: much like a private foundation, but with none of the work for you.

2. IT’S COST EFFECTIVE: A low initial gift establishes your fund, which can accept additional gifts at any time. Our administrative fees are among the lowest in the country, leaving more of your investment for grant-making.

3. IT’S A TAX BENEFIT: Because the foundation is a public charity, we offer the maximum tax advantage under state and federal laws.

4. IT’S LOCAL: The foundation’s deep roots and keen local knowledge can help you maximize your gift’s impact in the community.

5. IT’S FOREVER: Your gift keeps on giving long after you are gone.

The foundation accepts gifts of cash, stock, real estate, business income and retirement assets. By working with your attorney or financial advisor, we can develop a giving plan that works for you.

To learn more, contact Dr. Suzanne Allen, vice president of development, at 330-376-8522 or sallen@akroncommunityfdn.org.
Imagine if you could help people in every corner of the community – all with a single gift. That’s what donors to the Community Fund did this year. Their gifts funded 108 grants totaling more than $1.8 million, supporting local nonprofits when the community needed them the most. The fund is not limited by time or purpose; its grants meet a broad range of needs as they arise. Each year, nonprofit organizations may apply for a Community Fund grant during one of four unique funding quarters. All grants benefit Summit County, and priority is given to the most vital and timely programs.

DOWNLOAD THE COMMUNITY FUND APPLICATION AT WWW.AKRONCOMMUNITYFDN.ORG.
This year, 108 grants totaling $1,801,770 were made possible thanks to generous donations to the Community Fund and the unrestricted funds listed on page 20.

Each year, a shocking number of preschoolers are expelled due to bad behavior. Bonnie Demboski of Akron’s Wilbeth-Arlington YMCA Preschool knows this first hand. Many of her center’s workers were not equipped to handle problems like kicking, biting and chair-throwing. But, thanks to CHILD GUIDANCE & FAMILY SOLUTIONS’ SPECIALTY CHILD CARE PROGRAM, an on-site behavior specialist helps the staff identify and modify bad behavior before it escalates into a dangerous pattern. Since introducing puppets and other creative behavior-modeling tools, yearly expulsions have plummeted from 15 to zero. “Instead of being frustrated and ready to give up,” Bonnie said, “we take a deep breath and talk to (the kids). It’s helped me as a teacher.” A 150,000 COMMUNITY FUND GRANT expanded the program to reach at least 200 more children in 2009.
Mustard Seed Development Center CEO Toree Stokes knows what it’s like to run out of money. As a young newlywed, Toree was having trouble paying the bills and dealing with creditors. She quickly realized she wasn’t alone and reached out to help other people in her same situation. Toree started MUSTARD SEED DEVELOPMENT CENTER in 1999 and, since then, Mustard Seed has helped nearly 5,000 local residents take control of their finances, including Gabrielle Blackshear (shown above). “I am so happy to be in a position to help people have a more empowered life,” Toree said. This year, a $30,000 COMMUNITY FUND GRANT supported Mustard Seed’s financial literacy and counseling programs.

Summit County’s unemployment figures are the highest they have been in decades. As a result, more families than ever are turning to organizations like OPEN M to put food on the table. “We’ve seen a lot of new people now, people we haven’t seen in the past,” said Volunteer Manager Tiffany Stahl. To meet this demand, Akron Community Foundation made a $20,000 GRANT to the AKRON-CANTON REGIONAL FOODBANK, which stocks OPEN M with fresh produce to distribute to an ever-growing needy population. Brett, a recently laid-off father of five, is grateful. “We come every month,” he said, holding a box to carry food in one hand and his 3-year-old daughter in the other. “It’s a big help.”
Two men who challenged the status quo.

A former Medina County businessman who cares about his neighbors.

A convener and an activist with hearts for helping women.

These are just some of the good people improving the community through Akron Community Foundation’s Family of Funds.

Their interests vary, from supporting ethnic and cultural causes to advancing women’s and children’s issues. Through Akron Community Foundation, each donor connected with like-minded residents around a single charitable goal: to create a permanent fund to support their philanthropic passion.

The funds have grown over time, engaging new donors, board members and nonprofit organizations committed to the causes of their founders. The foundation’s board and staff work hard to ensure all grants meet the funds’ respective missions and carefully monitor their results in the community.

Steve Schmidt and Rick Krochka weren’t sure how to start a fund, but they were certain about the need for funding in Akron’s lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community. So, they tapped the generosity of local philanthropists and established the GAY COMMUNITY ENDOWMENT FUND OF AKRON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION. Eight years later, it has grown to nearly $500,000. “I really believe that since creating the fund, there has been even more acceptance and awareness in Akron,” Rick said.

Throughout the years, $4 million from the Family of Funds has supported great things in our community, including 166 grants totaling $531,878 this fiscal year.

Nobby Lewandowski’s relationship with Medina County is longstanding. Thanks to one foundation fund, it will last forever. In 1994, he and Jack Holland started the MEDINA COUNTY COMMUNITY FUND, a permanent endowment to improve life in Medina County. “We were not big enough to do (it) on our own,” Nobby admitted, so they partnered with Akron Community Foundation. Now, 15 years later, GRANTS TOTALING $240,000 have helped Medina-area nonprofits and “the good things they make happen.”

One Sunday morning 16 years ago, something struck Marie Covington and her friend Norma Rist: the needs of local women and girls were “too many to count,” and funding options were minimal. With the help of Akron Community Foundation, they recruited 106 like-minded donors, EACH OF WHOM GAVE $1,000, and established the WOMEN’S ENDOWMENT FUND. Today, the fund continues to empower local females to do great things in Summit County. “This fund will live after all of us are gone,” Marie said.

In an effort to attract local students to the field of pest control and entomology, the SUMMIT COUNTY PEST CONTROL ASSOCIATION created a scholarship fund at Akron Community Foundation. The fund helps college students further their education in the specialized field, something association Vice President Jim Sanor wasn’t able to do. “I didn’t go to college, and I wish I could have,” he said. “We thought this would be a great avenue to help younger kids with their college education.”

love for visual and performing arts. to ensure future Akronites can do the same, he established the Allan Family Fund grants to the Akron Art Museum make art accessible to local youngsters and their families, many of whom bond while creating masterpieces together.

It makes my giving so much easier," Ron said. Allan Family Fund grants to the Akron Art Museum make art accessible to local youngsters and their families, many of whom bond while creating masterpieces together.

For art enthusiast Ron Allan, Akron is a fantastic place to live. It was in this community that he and his family cultivated their love for visual and performing arts. To ensure future Akronites can do the same, he established the Allan Family Fund grants to the Akron Art Museum make art accessible to local youngsters and their families, many of whom bond while creating masterpieces together.

22 I AkronCommunityFn.org I 2009
Lifelong Akron residents Mal and Sue Ames have made it their mission to help feed hungry families in Summit County. In 1994, the couple established a family fund to help meet that philanthropic goal. Since then, nearly 100 grants from the SUE AND MAL AMES FUND have supported organizations that provide food to those who need it most in our community, including the Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank, Haven of Rest Ministries and Good Samaritan Hunger Center. “I was raised to contribute and to give back,” Sue said. “It is our duty to give back to the community, as well as a very satisfying thing to do.”
At the close of fiscal year 2009, Akron Community Foundation and its funds held more than $100 million in permanent philanthropic capital. The foundation’s endowment is composed of the gifts and bequests of thousands of donors, whose contributions are combined to maximize earnings and reduce administrative costs.

Gifts totaling $7.1 million helped solidify the foundation’s long-term commitment to greater Akron. While the endowment experienced a 27.5 percent decline in the market value of its assets, the foundation continues to practice the same prudent disciplines that have proven to be successful for almost two decades. No one can predict the future, but experience shows that after periods of market contraction, contributions made to organizations with proven, long-term investment strategies have been wise decisions. Therefore, gifts made to Akron Community Foundation today will exponentially impact generations to come.

This year alone, the foundation’s Distribution Committee approved 886 grants to deserving nonprofits. In total, $8.3 million in grants and other distributions were reinvested in the community, improving the quality of life for countless residents of Summit County.

For Bud and Susie Rogers, this simple expression of wisdom is what inspired a lifetime of philanthropy in Akron.

It was this philosophy that encouraged Bud to step in when the local United Way needed him most and devote his time to chairing the group’s annual campaign.

It was this philosophy that cultivated Bud’s family business, B.W. Rogers Co., and allowed him to touch the lives of countless local families.

And it was this philosophy that gave Bud and Susie a passion for improving greater Akron through organizations such as the Summit County Red Cross, the Akron Rotary Club and the Junior League.

Their hard work and grounded attitudes have inspired other local residents to do great things in the community, and their perseverance has been a model for the young people they’ve mentored. Whether Bud and Susie are on their knees trimming shrubs at a camp for special needs children or leading the boards of vital community organizations, their commitment to greater Akron is unwavering.

It is this unmatched generous spirit that makes Bud and Susie Rogers exemplary recipients of the 39th Bert A. Polsky Humanitarian Award.
