Thanks TO YOU!
Akron Community Foundation embraces and enhances the work of charitable people who make a permanent commitment to the good of the community.
THANKS.

It’s a simple word, but it most appropriately summarizes our gratitude to you for making 2013 the most successful year yet for your Akron Community Foundation.

Thanks for the nearly 4,000 gifts totaling $7.4 million that are supporting our greater Akron community and your charitable mission. You helped build the total assets of your community foundation to a record $150 million. Held locally, these assets are preserved, protected and grown by our 24-person board, all of whom live or work in Summit County.

Thanks to the 23 forward-thinking fundholders who started their own charitable funds this year. As a community foundation, we are uniquely positioned to embrace and enhance your charitable dream, whatever it may be.

Thanks to the hard-working nonprofit organizations that make this community such a great place to live and work. We are pleased to report that we have exceeded $100 million in total grants since 1955, grants that have supported children, adults and families in all corners of our community – just as our founder Edwin Shaw intended.

Finally, thanks to you, the charitably minded people, organizations and advocates of Akron Community Foundation. Together, we are making life better, and the best is yet to come.

LeBron James hasn’t forgotten where he came from. As a young boy growing up in Akron, he and his mom moved five times. All but once, he had to change schools. Different apartments, different teachers, different friends. It was a difficult existence for a young man trying to find his footing.

Thanks to the support of passionate coaches, mentors and family members, LeBron never fell through the cracks like so many of his peers. Now, with his philanthropy, he’s working hard to ensure other kids don’t, either.

In 2012, LeBron donated his MVP award proceeds to Akron Public Schools. The money started an endowment fund at Akron Community Foundation for Akron After School, a tutoring and enrichment program for students during the crucial after-school hours – hours when they could otherwise be home alone or at risk.

“When I look at these young kids in Akron, I see myself,” LeBron said. “I was one of them, so it’s really important to me that I do all I can to help these kids not become statistics and to show them that anything is possible if you work hard.”

Akron Community Foundation offers nonprofits predictable, sustainable funding, efficient processing of even the most complex gifts, and an opportunity to reach a whole new set of charitably minded residents. Learn more at www.akroncf.org/permanentfunding.
Like so many of us, Dave Yeager lost his mom to cancer. Now, he’s working to ensure sons and daughters are no longer left motherless by the disease.

As a young professional, Dave began more than 40 years of volunteer service with the American Cancer Society. Back then, it was “just something you did, a duty.” He answered the call, not knowing how personally the disease would later impact him.

Dave and his wife, Peg, both lost parents to cancer, so the cause was close to home. They wanted to do something additional and more permanent to support the cancer society, and their donor-advised fund at Akron Community Foundation became just the vehicle.

Since founding it in 1998, the couple has used the David L. and Margaret Scott Yeager Fund to support their alma mater, church, and local health and welfare organizations. Even now – especially now – the cancer society is one of those vital initiatives.

“Unfortunately, we know people who have lost parents or loved ones,” Dave said, “but we also know survivors. And more people these days are surviving.”

With a gift of stock to the community foundation, the Yeagers started their fund and enjoyed the greatest tax benefit available from any nonprofit. What type of giving suits you: a current gift like the Yeagers’ or a future gift like a bequest? Compare your options at www.akroncf.org/smartgivingnow and www.akroncf.org/plannedgiving.
For four days and nights, Harry Donovan was lost at sea. His entire crew had been attacked, so there he sat, stranded in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, where hope seemed as distant as the shoreline.

Deliverance came in the form of a U.S. landing ship. Its crew pulled Harry to safety, offering him food, clean water and everything he needed to get back on his feet. After returning from World War II, Harry regained his footing stateside by earning his high school and college diplomas and becoming a successful accountant, even serving on the staff of a sitting U.S. president.

Service being Harry’s motto, he never forgot the crew that saved his life. He also hasn’t forgotten the plight of his fellow veterans, so many of whom struggle to find normalcy when returning from combat. In 2012, Harry and his wife started the Donovan Veterans Fund of Akron Community Foundation. Its mission is to educate, rehabilitate and train fellow veterans so they can enjoy successful lives and careers like Harry.

“So many people don’t understand: When you have been in a war and had buddies killed around you, and you’ve been exposed to someone shooting at you, you are just so glad you got home,” Harry said. “It can be difficult to get your life back together.”

The power of endowment ensures your name and charitable mission continue on in perpetuity. By endowing your fund, you can create certainty and continual support for your favorite nonprofits. See how it works at www.akroncf.org/powerofendowment.
Cecil “Smitty” Smith was the king of the cat house: The one in his backyard, that is.

For years, Smitty’s wife, Rosalie, was known throughout Barberton for her devotion to helping stray animals. The heated shelter behind their home – “the cat house,” as the Smiths’ friends fondly called it – quickly became a haven for strays of all sorts. Cats, dogs, raccoons – they all found in it an oasis of food, fresh water and shelter.

When Rosalie passed away in 2005, Smitty wanted to continue her legacy of caring for her four-legged friends. So, with the help of his financial advisor, he started the Rosalie and Cecil Smith Fund of Akron Community Foundation. Its mission is to reduce Summit County’s suffering animal population by spaying and neutering feral cats and dogs.

“The Smiths never wanted an extravagant life,” said Dr. Jay Williamson, the couple’s friend. “They wanted to use their means to give back to the community, and they wanted to do so in a way that was meaningful and significant.”

Significant, indeed: and animals across greater Akron have Smitty to thank.

Akron Community Foundation works hand-in-hand with professional advisors like Smitty’s to help their charitably inclined clients meet philanthropic goals. See how we can help at www.akroncf.org/advisors. Also, read how we helped Smitty rally community resources around his cause at www.akroncf.org/spayneuter.

Legacy Funds, or funds that were designed by their founders to grow in perpetuity.
We all have it, that charitable spark. Maybe yours was lit by a parent or mentor. Perhaps it was ignited by a combination of beauty, poverty and opportunity experienced in your life.

A spark may be small, but with fuel it will radiate.

This year, 23 new fundholders ignited their charitable legacy at Akron Community Foundation. Some started funds to honor friends and co-workers, others to fuel their family’s charitable dreams, all the while providing light and warmth to people and places that need it.

We celebrate their generosity. Let’s celebrate yours, too.

With a gift of $5,000 or more, you can start your own charitable legacy at Akron Community Foundation. Just choose the causes or nonprofits. We’ll make sure your giving reaches your target, whatever it may be. Need some advice and inspiration? We’ve got that, too. We’ll introduce you to promising programs in your areas of interest and connect you with like-minded philanthropists through social and educational events. Like the rest of our fundholders, you won’t pay a dime out of pocket.

Akron Community Foundation offers a range of fund options. Which one will fan your charitable flame?

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

With a scholarship fund, you, your school or your company can create a brighter future for area students. A minimum gift of $25,000 starts your fund. Scholarships will be awarded by the committee of your choosing based on your predetermined selection criteria.

New scholarship funds:

Margot Eiseman Scholarship Fund
Established by the Artists of Rubber City to provide scholarships to high school seniors in Summit County who are planning to study art or art education, with a strong preference for fiber arts.

QCEF Scholarship Fund
Established by the Gay Community Endowment Fund of Akron Community Foundation to provide scholarships to LGBT students and allies who live or study in Summit, Medina, Portage or Stark counties.

Mabel L. Hinkle Scholarship Fund
Established by Mabel Hinkle to provide scholarships for women residing in Summit or Portage counties who are studying business or medicine.

FIELD-OF-INTEREST FUNDS

Do you care deeply about a particular issue? A field-of-interest fund awards grants to the most promising programs in your chosen field. Our board and staff will fully vet applicants and award grants that are directly in line with your charitable intent – now and after you’re gone.

New field-of-interest funds:

Rev. Dr. Byron Arledge Fund
Established in honor of Rev. Arledge and his years of service by Pastoral Counseling Service of Summit County to support mental health services for children, adults and families.

Craine’s Cholangiocarcinoma Crew Fund
Established by David and Lisa Craine to support research for cholangiocarcinoma, a rare cancer of the bile duct.

Donovan Veterans Fund
Established by World War II Navy veteran Harry Donovan and his wife, Fran, to support education and rehabilitation for veterans.

H.A. Flannery Family and James R. Flannery Family Fund
Established by the estate of Ruth S. Flannery to support hospitals and public institutions of learning in Ohio.

UNRESTRICTED FUNDS

Unrestricted funds put the full power of the community foundation to work for you. Each quarter, we request applications to meet our community’s most pressing needs, needs we monitor and that will certainly change over time. Then, we study, vet and award grants to the nonprofits best equipped to tackle these important issues – and we do so in your fund’s name.

New unrestricted funds:

Herskowitz Family Fund (Est. 2012)
Established by Harriet and Herb Herskowitz, both retired college educators, to meet the community’s changing needs.

At www.yourcharitabledreams.org, we offer everything you need to research and start your own charitable fund. From tax-smart giving options and planned giving calculators to philanthropy resources and tips for involving your advisor, it’s all available online, any day, anytime. You can also talk to Margaret Medzie, vice president of development and donor engagement, at 330-376-8522.
Thanks to our nearly 300 donor-directed fundholders, Akron Community Foundation is making charitable dreams come true—every day, everywhere—in Summit County and beyond. This year alone, grants from your donor-directed funds totaled nearly $4.5 million for programs from the grassroots to nationwide.

Our 117 corporate- and donor-advised fundholders made the majority of our grants—more than $3.07 million—ranging from $100 to their alma mater to more than $100,000 for Akron Children’s Hospital. Many fundholders leveraged the community foundation’s expertise and insight into the local nonprofit landscape through information sessions, tours of nonprofits and one-on-one information-sharing. Some even made grants to augment our discretionary funding.

Our 63 agency endowment funds produced nearly $430,000 in stable income for their nonprofit’s charitable mission. Nearly $70,000 helped the Humane Society of Greater Akron care for and protect underserved animals, while nearly $30,000 helped the Brimfield Historical Society collect, preserve and exhibit artifacts from its township’s past.

Through our 80 designated funds, fundholders helped their favorite charities to the tune of nearly $1 million, including more than $30,000 for St. Vincent Elementary School and the Salvation Army. We thank them for their generosity.

John Dotson cared about Akron. One of the nation’s first African-American newspaper publishers, he had an eye for news and a heart for equality. He led the Akron Beacon Journal to a Pulitzer Prize-winning series on race relations, prompting President Bill Clinton to hold his first Town Hall on Race in Akron. A Millennium Fund for Children co-founder, John also started the Peggy and John Dotson Fund of Akron Community Foundation, supporting journalism and social justice initiatives. We lost John to lymphoma this year, but his legacy lives on forever through his donor-advised fund.

Thanks to the families, schools and businesses with scholarship funds at Akron Community Foundation, together, we awarded more than $245,000 this year to help area students pursue their educational dreams.

In 1990, Donald Barlow established the Hudson Public Schools Endowment Fund to benefit the system’s seven schools and their students. Today, the Hudson Public Schools Endowment Fund includes more than a dozen individual scholarship funds that awarded a total of $117,700 this year to deserving students. These scholarships benefited 40 of Hudson’s best and brightest, from star athletes on the lacrosse, baseball and football teams to students who encouraged diversity and tolerance among their peers.

Other Akron Community Foundation scholarship funds awarded $127,395 this year to 86 students from a wide variety of backgrounds and interests – from grade schoolers to college students, and from marbles champions to orchestra maestros. Some funds helped students who graduated from the establisher’s alma mater, such as the University of Akron or Akron Public Schools. Others helped make it easier for employees of local companies like Akron Paint & Varnish to send children, grandchildren – or even themselves – to college. These students and the community thank you.

When Judy Resnik became the second woman in space, girls all over greater Akron thought, “Someday that could be me.” A West Akron native, Judy was one of us, a hard-working hometown girl who made the giant leap from Firestone Falcon to foremost female engineer. Judy lost her life aboard the Space Shuttle Challenger, but the Women’s Network of Akron was determined to keep her spirit alive with the Judith A. Resnik Scholarship Fund of Akron Community Foundation. Thanks to them, females pursuing science and engineering degrees can get the lift they need to reach for the stars.
We appreciate the following residents and organizations of Hudson for helping young people succeed. If you are a Hudson student looking to take the next step educationally, visit www.hudson.edu/schools/hhs/guidance/scholarships to view deadlines and applications. If you have questions, contact the Hudson High School Department of Guidance and Counseling at 330-653-1420.

DISCRETIONARY FUNDS

Thanks to our discretionary fundholders, the community foundation and the charitable people of greater Akron are meeting key community challenges. This year, we convened hundreds of partners and made $2.63 million in total grants to strengthen big ideas, vulnerable populations and targeted regions with high-impact initiatives and grants.

Our forward-thinking unrestricted funds and board-discretionary field-of-interest funds made $1.87 million in grants for vital community programs in the arts, civic affairs, health and human services, and education. Their reach can be felt all over Summit County in the form of summer concerts and festivals, free clinics, food distribution, and early learning programs.

Our committee-driven field-of-interest funds supported causes as diverse as their establishers. Grants range from improving the environment and encouraging community gardening to preventing drug and alcohol abuse and helping people with disabilities. A total of $540,858 honored their fundholders’ charitable intent and permanent legacy.

Our geographic- and issue-specific initiative funds received broad financial support thanks to donors from all walks of life. This strong public backing helped to fund more than $220,000 in grants that encourage equality for racial minorities, women, girls, and our local LGBT community. Others support grassroots children’s programs and improve Medina County’s quality of life.
GAY COMMUNITY ENDOWMENT FUND

The Gay Community Endowment Fund will accept grant applications Aug. 15 – Sept. 15, 2014. For more information or to view the application questions, visit www.akroncf.org/applyGCEF.

YOU DID IT!
You broke yet another Akron Community Foundation record. This year, your record number of contributions – in all, nearly 4,000 – raised a total of $7.4 million to improve our quality of life.

Many of you gave to our Women’s Endowment Fund’s “For Women, Forever” campaign. You wrote checks, you made pledges, you set up deductions from your paycheck. And while it’s one thing to write a $25 check to your favorite cause, imagine supporting it forever with an endowment fund in your name.

A remarkable number of people who don’t consider themselves wealthy can create charitable funds, so it’s not a matter of if, only when.

GIVING NOW
Are you prepared to commit $5,000 to start your charitable legacy now? Giving now may be for you, especially if you:

• Face significant tax consequences due to the sale of a business or highly appreciated assets
• Are forced to take automatic IRA payouts beyond what you need
• Have received a considerable inheritance
• Have a private foundation that is costing too much
• Wish to cultivate family or corporate philanthropy now

We make it easy to give simple and complex gifts, from real estate to appreciated securities like closely held S-Corp stock. See your options at www.akroncf.org/smartgivingnow.

In 2009, Rennick and Dee Andreoli made a gift of cash to start their donor-advised fund. They also wrote the community foundation into their will. As a result, they will continue to support their favorite charities forever after they’re gone. Read how they’re using the Rennick and Dee Andreoli Family Fund of Akron Community Foundation now at www.akroncf.org/CabinsForKids.
FOR GIVING

GIVING LATER Perhaps your assets are tied up in your home, college tuition or insurance policy. Maybe you’re worried you will outlive your savings. Planned giving may be right for you if you’re willing to consider charitable plans that:
  • Take place upon your death
  • Ensure your family and friends are cared for first (and with the most tax-advantageous assets)
  • Guarantee you a lifetime stream of income
  • Reduce high tax liability now while paying you income later
  • Create a long-term gift that won’t draw on your estate

Edwin C. Shaw Legacy Society
When you make a planned gift to start or support a fund at Akron Community Foundation, you become a member of our esteemed Edwin C. Shaw Legacy Society. These fellow residents, colleagues and friends are supporting a fund through their will, charitable gift annuity, remainder trust or life insurance policy. We thank them for their generosity and foresight.

Thanks to a chance meeting at St. Vincent-St. Mary High School, greater Akron has been blessed for more than 40 years with the love and charity of Pete and Eileen Burg. Pete, former chairman and CEO of FirstEnergy, championed efforts to advance Akron and the entire Northeast Ohio region. He helped create Team NEO and served on the boards of Akron Children’s Hospital, Musical Arts Association, United Way of Summit County and the Summit County Chapter of the American Red Cross, many of which named awards for him.

Before Pete passed away in 2004, he told Eileen he wasn’t ready to leave because he had so much left to give back. Eileen made a conscious decision to carry on Pete’s legacy. In addition to her many other charitable endeavors, she started the H. Peter Burg Fund at Akron Community Foundation in memory of Pete to support organizations he loved.

Between chairing many successful fundraisers, serving on the boards of the University of Akron and other noteworthy organizations, and contributing her time, money and talents to causes big and small, Eileen has made a significant impact on countless organizations and individuals. She no longer just carries on Pete’s legacy – she’s created one of her own.

“People tell me that it’s like Pete still lives in me, and that’s exactly how I feel,” she said.
Thank you for Trusting your charitable giving with Akron Community Foundation. We take great care to invest your funds wisely, transparently and prudently so they will grow over time, enabling you to give to your favorite causes now and forever.

Our investment policy of preserving capital, promoting long-term growth and minimizing undue risk of charitable assets has been successful year after year. This strategy has helped us increase our assets this year by nearly $10 million, reaching an all-time high of $150 million. In addition, this policy positioned us for an impressive 9.2 percent investment return for the year ending March 31, 2013, with an average annualized net gain of 9.14 percent since the portfolio’s inception in 1988.

We take our responsibility to you and our community very seriously, and we continuously work to preserve the endowment we’ve built together for future generations.
