with gratitude

What are you most grateful for? Is it your friends and family? Your health? Your job? Your education?

At Akron Community Foundation, we are most grateful for you!

Your inspiring vision and selfless generosity set a record with $10.1 million in contributions and 40 new funds this year.

This unprecedented growth was boosted by Medical Mutual of Ohio's record-breaking gift of $5 million to start the Medical Mutual Community Investment Fund. We welcome this new partnership and appreciate their confidence in Akron Community Foundation.

Another highlight of our year was our proactive outreach to current fundholders, financial and legal advisors, and potential contributors. Our newly established donor-friendly policies keep financial advisors connected to their clients, and modified fund agreement language encourages multi-generational family philanthropy. Our vision to embrace and enhance the work of charitable people who make a permanent commitment to the good of the community is certainly one to celebrate.

In this report, a few of your fellow donors and fundholders will share what they're grateful for, both charitably and personally. We think you'll agree: It is gratitude we can all relate to.

Akron Community Foundation is a grateful steward, not just of your charitable dollars, but also of your charitable dreams. Our board and staff stand ready to listen and help you give back—now and forever. Your permanent philanthropy will help lift up our community and impact the lives of individuals today and for many years to come. For that, we thank you.

Drs. Sandy and Mark Auburn have much to be thankful for. “We are grateful for health and for the good fortune of having found one another and being married for 43 years. We are grateful for our families: parents who gave us our values and taught us about philanthropy, and our son and daughter-in-law and granddaughters, who carry on those traditions of giving. And we are grateful for our Akron community, whose support has made us who we are. Through our philanthropy we pay both back and forward.”

With Akron Community Foundation, you can make smart charitable gifts now and inspired grants forever to your favorite causes and charities. Learn your options for giving at www.akroncf.org/givingnow.

When a business opens a corporate-advised fund at Akron Community Foundation, it does so out of gratitude to its customers, employees and the community as a whole. Medical Mutual of Ohio is no different. “The community foundation gives us a partner that understands local issues and can help us use our charitable donations to maintain a vital, healthy community for our many customers throughout the Akron area,” said the company’s president and CEO, Rick Chiricosta. “We are grateful.”

With corporate-advised funds at Akron Community Foundation, businesses both large and small can encourage employee philanthropy and improve the community without the burdens and expenses of a private foundation. Learn more at www.akroncf.org/company.

abundant gratitude

Tracy Carter is grateful for the ability to think - and give - big. By naming the Women's Endowment Fund as a beneficiary of her life insurance policy, she is supporting the fund in a far greater way than she ever could have imagined. "My grandmothers made great sacrifices for me, and I wanted to honor them by making a gift that would benefit future generations of women and girls."

With a planned gift, you, too, can make a big charitable impact with very little expense to you. Learn about these giving options anyone can afford at www.akroncf.plannedgiving.org.

Dale Koblenzer and Bob Cooper

Local wealth management advisor Dale Koblenzer is thankful for his clients, among them community foundation fundholder Bob Cooper. Dale also appreciates the value Akron Community Foundation adds to their relationship. “Many times I’ll have a 20- or 30-year relationship with a client, and we will have a strong trust built between us,” Dale said. “Working with the community foundation keeps that relationship alive. It’s a nice triangle of services: the client’s money, my investment advisement and the foundation’s charitable expertise.”

With Akron Community Foundation, financial advisors throughout greater Akron are deepening their client relationships through philanthropy. Learn more at www.akroncf.org/financialmanagers.

Their donor-advised fund allows Dr. William and Olivia Demas to live out the philanthropic values they learned growing up in Trinidad and Guyana. “We’re grateful that we learned philanthropy at a young age from our parents. As we received, our families shared their talents, time and resources with others ... not as duties but as necessary acts to improve and influence lives. It’s a cycle of grace.”

Like the veins of a leaf, your giving is unique. Akron Community Foundation offers six distinct options for starting your named charitable fund, each with varying levels of grant-making involvement. All but one can be started with a gift of $5,000, and each can be made permanent through the power of endowment.

Donor-Advised Funds allow individuals, families and businesses to be fully involved in their philanthropy. You recommend grants to your favorite nonprofits while the community foundation handles all the paperwork and administration. These funds offer many of the same benefits as a private foundation without the burden and cost. Plus, many of our fundholders are grateful for the opportunity to tap into our knowledge of local issues.

Designated Funds allow you to support your favorite nonprofit organizations forever. A single fund can support one or more charities, even specific programs of those charities. And if the organization you choose eventually ceases to exist, the community foundation will redirect the fund’s income to reflect your original charitable intent.

Agency Endowment Funds generate a predictable stream of income for your nonprofit while the rest of your investment grows in perpetuity – so you can do good forever. Organizations with endowment funds appreciate the community foundation’s economies-of-scale investment benefits, financial stability, and ability to accept complex gifts. Endowments may also attract donors who prefer to fund your organization permanently rather than just through annual giving.

discretionary funds

Scholarship Funds allow you to create a brighter future for grateful area students. With an initial gift of $25,000, you can choose to support students’ education in a particular area of study, like engineering, or help students attend your alma mater or another beloved school. You can even appoint and participate in the committee that selects the recipients.

Field-of-Interest Funds allow you to permanently support your broad philanthropic passions. You choose your favorite interest area – such as the arts, education or health care – and a foundation committee will recommend grants to promising projects in that area long after you’re gone.

Unrestricted Funds honor the legacy of a person or family by making grants to meet the community’s ever-changing needs in their name. The community foundation’s board and staff identify our area’s most compelling needs and award grants from your fund to the programs best suited to meet them. This is an excellent way for your family to address future challenges in the community that you feel grateful to be a part of.

To see the many tax-wise giving options available for starting your fund, visit www.akroncf.org/givingnow. Or, to learn more, contact Dr. Suzanne Allen, vice president of development and donor services, at 330-436-5610 or sallen@akroncf.org.

the power of endowment

giving forever

One of the greatest gifts you can give to a cause, organization or even your family is the power to give back. An endowment fund helps you do just that – forever – with a fund in your name.

Endowments are permanent funds that provide dependable, lasting income to your chosen cause or nonprofit. Endowment funds perpetuate your family's name and charitable legacy. They offer a unique opportunity for multiple generations of your family – your children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and beyond – to make gifts and grants in your name. It's the perfect way to pass along your philanthropic traditions without the burden and administration of a private foundation.

When it comes to the charities and nonprofits you support, endowment funding can mean the difference between their vitality and bankruptcy, or creativity and complacency. That's why dozens of Akron Community Foundation endowments have been started by nonprofit organizations themselves. These endowments provide the permanent stream of income the organizations need to continue doing good work in our community forever.

The power of endowment is undeniable. Take, for instance, the John A. McAlonan Fund, which was established in 1994 with a $4.7 million trust from the estate of a successful auto dealer. Without a single additional gift, that $4.7 million has more than doubled to $10 million and has also made more than $5.1 million in grants in John A. McAlonan's name. For that, nonprofits all over greater Akron are grateful.

You can start an endowed fund with the help of our donor services team or at one of six local banks: Fifth Third, FirstMerit, Huntington, KeyBank, PNC or Premier Bank and Trust. To learn more about your options, contact Laura Fink, director of development, at 330-436-5611 or lfink@akroncf.org.

Read more about the power of endowment and see how much your endowed gift can grow. Visit www.akroncf.org/powerofendowment.

giving with foresight

By writing Akron Community Foundation into their will, establishing a charitable gift annuity or remainder trust, or naming the community foundation a beneficiary of a life insurance policy, members of the Edwin C. donor-directed funds

“The one thing I always notice about people using our trails is they’re smiling. I think people are thankful for the opportunity to get away from their regular routines and come into the very beautiful setting of Cuyahoga Valley National Park to be able to absorb nature in its fullest, to have quiet and peace.”

— John Debo, Trails Forever agency endowment fund representative and chief development officer for the Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park

“As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.”

— John F. Kennedy

your charitable dreams realized

It’s one thing to write a $25 check to your favorite charity. But imagine supporting it forever with an endowment fund. Donor-directed funds put individuals, families and organizations in charge of their grant-making in a way that’s easy, engaging and permanent.

With a donor-advised fund, you can support an unlimited number of charities with grants of any size at any time. We’ll handle all the due diligence and paperwork so you can spend your time deciding how to best use your charitable dollars. We can even take you on tours of local nonprofits so you have a first hand look at the programs you are interested in supporting.

Designated funds give you the ability to permanently support one or more of your favorite charities in your name. The interest from your fund will create a consistent stream of income that those charities can rely on, both now and after you’re gone. This is an ideal option if you want to leave a philanthropic legacy through a specific agency in the community.

Finally, agency endowment funds allow nonprofits to create their own permanent, predictable source of income. Akron Community Foundation values the important work your agency is doing, and we can help you continue that good work forever through regular grants from your endowment fund. Our donor services staff can also give you creative ideas to grow your fund within the context of your existing development plan.

Through discretionary grants, Akron Community Foundation is empowering fundholders to meet key community challenges. Learn how we do it at www.akroncf.org/initiatives.

Mobile Meals

“Mobile Meals is grateful to be a presence of hope in the lives of some of the most fragile and vulnerable people in our community. Each child, disabled individual or elderly person who receives our meals is ‘number one’ to us, and we treat each one with kindness, care and compassion.”

– Phil Marcin, development director

discretionary funds

Fred Lombardi and Patrick Weschler, attorneys at Buckingham, Doolittle & Burroughs, are grateful to be in a position to give back to the community in the name of their firm's founder. "We're thankful for the integrity and philanthropy of Lisle M. Buckingham, whose values have become hallmarks of our firm. The community foundation offers us an easy and efficient way of giving back to our community by combining our resources, growing our investments, and administering our grant-making in a way that is worthy of the Buckingham name."

"The depth and the willingness with which we serve is a direct reflection of our gratitude."

— Gordon T. Watts

meeting community needs

Through discretionary funds, everyday residents fuel big ideas, strengthen vulnerable populations and improve entire communities with high-impact grants. Discretionary funds harness the full benefits of the community foundation's deep nonprofit knowledge and community expertise. They help you create a lasting legacy for your family or organization without the responsibility of researching and selecting grants on your own.

Discretionary funds can support everything from broad initiatives like education and civic affairs to issue-specific causes like women and children in Medina County. Our staff works closely with each fund's advisory board to determine how it can make the most impact.

With a field-of-interest fund, you choose a specific focus area – such as pediatric health or the environment – and a knowledgeable committee will recommend grants to the best programs in your chosen field. You may even help select or be a member of the committee.

With an unrestricted fund, you give the community foundation full latitude to meet emerging initiatives and unforeseen needs of all kinds. Each quarter, our board will use your named fund to research and address the most pressing challenges in our community. It's the perfect way to continue making a difference in greater Akron and enrich the lives of your children, grandchildren and generations beyond.

– Ann Lane Gates, scholarship fundholder and former board member

contributors

“We are grateful to be able to involve our family in our philanthropy because it teaches them to give with their heart. Philanthropy is a great way to demonstrate the importance of helping others, even if all you can give is your time.”

— David and Cheryl Venarge, donor advisors

Year in Review

dear supporters:

This has been a record-shattering year for Akron Community Foundation. In February, we received the largest gift in our 57-year history from Medical Mutual of Ohio, which gave $5 million to start a corporate-advised fund. We also had an unprecedented contribution total of $10.1 million and saw the largest number of new funds ever established in a single year by charitable individuals, families and organizations in our community.

We are humbled by your generosity and grateful for the opportunity to help you fulfill your charitable goals. While discretionary funding remained steady, you increased your designated and donor-advised grant-making by a staggering 23 percent. With your help, our more than 400 funds awarded 891 grants and distributions totaling $6.3 million to programs that feed the hungry, prepare young students to succeed in school, produce live community theater performances, clean up our neighborhoods and much more.

We are especially pleased to report that your community foundation grew 4 percent for the year ending March 31, 2012, with assets of more than $140 million in philanthropic capital. This was achieved through generous contributions, strategic and focused grant-making, prudent administration, and strict discipline to our investment policy. Adhering to this policy has produced an average annualized net return of 5.8 percent during the 10 years ending March 31, 2012, and 9.1 percent since the portfolio's inception in December 1988.

Our Finance and Investment Committee and staff take seriously their responsibility to protect and grow your investments so you can support your favorite causes for years to come. Please contact Steve Schloenbach at 330-436-5621 if you have questions about the foundation's investment policy or how you can use the power of endowment to fulfill your charitable goals. Thank you for your commitment to enriching our community both now and forever.

Sincerely,

Dale Koblenzer

“Akron Community Foundation makes our charitable investment go further. Last year, through their relationships with a local grocer and the Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank, we were able to make a grant that funded a discounted purchase of bulk turkeys, which the food bank then distributed to residents in need. Nowhere else in town could offer us that kind of charitable help.”

polsky award

The Bert A. Polsky Humanitarian Award was established to honor one of Akron's greatest civic, cultural and business leaders. Bert Polsky, a founding trustee of Akron Community Foundation, was one of those rare individuals whose creed was faith in people, community service and devotion to family.

Each year, Akron Community Foundation gives this special award to the individual or individuals who best exemplify Bert Polsky's selfless dedication and his contributions to humanitarian causes in greater Akron.

In 2011 and 2012, two of Northeast Ohio's most revered leaders in health care were honored with this distinction. We're grateful for the unparalleled service of Akron Children's Hospital CEO William H. Considine and former Akron General cardiologist Dr. Terry A. Gordon.

William H. Considine

As the CEO of Akron Children's Hospital, Bill Considine has his hands in all areas of the hospital's operations. But it's his personal touch that has made him a hero in this community. Whether Bill is comforting the parents of a sick child in the emergency room or raising money to purchase bicycle helmets for underprivileged kids, he always stays true to his motto of "service before self."

His genuine concern for others makes Bill an exemplary humanitarian. "Simply put: Bill cares about people," said community foundation President and CEO John T. Petures Jr.

With the 42nd Bert A. Polsky Humanitarian Award, Akron Community Foundation joins thousands of others across greater Akron in expressing gratitude for Bill's lifetime of service.

For a list of those who contributed to the Polsky Fund in Bill Considine's honor, see page 51.

Dr. Terry A. Gordon

As a retired cardiologist, Dr. Terry Gordon has cared for hundreds of patients, but it's his own heart that led him to become the recipient of the 43rd Bert A. Polsky Humanitarian Award.

Dr. Gordon's mantra in life is to give himself away, every day. For more than a decade, he has been instrumental in raising the funds to place automated external defibrillators in schools and other public places throughout the country. For that, countless families are grateful.

Dr. Gordon knows a thing or two about gratitude himself. After his son, Tyler, was paralyzed in a car accident, Dr. Gordon made it his mission to help others find hope in the midst of difficult circumstances.

"Rather than lamenting adversity, we can choose to be grateful for it," he said. "We can see it as an opportunity to transform turmoil, disappointment or suffering into understanding, insight or resolve."

Contributions to the Polsky Fund in honor of Dr. Gordon will be listed in the 2013 annual report. To make a gift, visit www.akroncf.org/givenow.
