Celebrate!

There is so much to celebrate in this great community of ours: Our hospitals. Our park system. Our businesses and cultural institutions. Our neighborhoods. Our leaders. Our citizens.

Our quality of life.

Sixty years ago, through a bequest in Edwin Shaw's will, your community foundation was established with $1 million to "meet the changes in the community needs brought about by the passage of time and the variance in circumstances." You see, Shaw understood that as times change, community needs change. In order to keep our community truly great, it would take more than one person.

Sixty years later, Akron Community Foundation remains the place where charitable people from all walks of life come together to improve and preserve our community's quality of life.

Some do so with their own named fund. Since the Shaw Foundation Fund was established in 1955, more than 500 charitable individuals, families and organizations have followed his lead by creating funds to support their favorite causes and charities throughout this great community - and beyond.

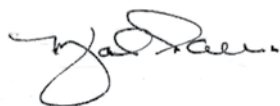

Others do so by making gifts to their favorite Akron Community Foundation funds. We're pleased to report we added a new initiative fund this year, Bath Community Fund, which was started by a group of local residents to create a permanent source of funding for a community rich with heritage.

Through your generous gifts and our board's prudent investing, Shaw's $1 million gift has since grown to a record $191 million in charitable assets. That single gift 60 years ago sparked 5,770 gifts and pledges totaling more than $13.6 million this year. And, since the initial $10,000 grant Shaw made possible to the University of Akron, we've achieved yet another milestone: $120 million in grants over our 60-year history, including a record $9.17 million awarded this year alone.

Yes, we have much to celebrate.

On June 8, dozens of donors, fundholders, nonprofits and businesses joined us for an #ACF60 "selfie celebration," posting social media images of how and why they celebrate Akron Community Foundation. This book contains a sampling of their celebrations, as well as a long list of reasons we celebrate you, the charitable people and organizations of Greater Akron.

Here's to 60 more.

FAMILY

When Phil and Peggy Lloyd consider their family's philanthropy, they have much to celebrate. The McDowell Cancer Institute of Akron General Medical Center; the University of Akron's C. Blake McDowell Law Center; the Akron Art Museum's Beatrice Knapp McDowell Grand Lobby: All are thanks to the C. Blake Jr. and Beatrice K. McDowell Foundation, started by Peggy's parents in 1998.

Private foundations were a trend of their time, a status symbol of sorts for people of means, Phil explained. But one charitable trend the McDowells adamantly refused to adopt was moving their charity south upon retirement. "It made my mother so upset when that money left our community," Peggy said. "She believed in giving where they earned their living."

For years, the family did just that, making grants to causes throughout Greater Akron. But recently, the federal rules and regulations governing private foundations became onerous. Phil, an attorney and the foundation's administrator, began investigating the benefits of a donor-advised fund. Soon, the family converted their private foundation to the Beatrice K. McDowell Family Fund of Akron Community Foundation.

"We don't feel like we've given up any control," Phil said. "We're actually protecting what we want to do for the future."

They're also honoring Beatrice's legacy of local giving. Phil and Peggy, along with her brother, Blake, are the fund's grant-making advisors. Their children will assume that role after them. Once they are unable or unwilling to serve, the fund's assets will be distributed to seven causes Beatrice loved. The rest will support our community's general welfare - forever - through Akron Community Foundation. "My mother would have liked that," Peggy said.

For now, the Lloyds can celebrate their ability to continue their mother's charity without the headache of administration and compliance. "We can still do the good," Phil said. "Someone else can do the work."

COMMUNITY

For Realtor Sally Johnson, nothing is more satisfying than helping her client find the perfect home. When the sold sign goes up, everyone celebrates. “Community is a huge part of it,” Sally says.

When it comes to communities, she and the Akron Cleveland Association of Realtors are working hard to make sure all the places their clients live and their agents work enjoy a healthy quality of life. With the Real Estate Community Cares Fund of Akron Community Foundation, they pool gifts from their members and award grants to nonprofits that make Northeast Ohio a quality place to live and do business. Many are housing- and family-related charities like Rebuilding Together, Neighborhood Housing Services and Akron Children’s Hospital.

“The fund empowers us to make a bigger difference together than each of us could on our own,” says association CEO Sandy Naragon.

The partnership offers a smart giving option for real estate agents and brokers, whose income can vary wildly from year to year. They can donate to the fund when it makes the most financial sense and get a tax deduction during the year they need it.

They also have the option of starting their own charitable fund at Akron Community Foundation to support the real estate fund or any of their favorite causes and charities – how and when they wish. A $5,000 gift starts a fund and offers an immediate tax deduction. Donors can name it for themselves, their family or however they wish.

In 2005, Real Estate Community Cares Fund donor Barb Hudak did just that by starting the Hudak Family Fund of Akron Community Foundation. With it, she funds autism research and treatment.

“As a Realtor, my passion has always been helping people,” Barb said. “And when I hear, ‘My child now talks’ or ‘My child now plays with other children,’ I know the Hudak Family Fund has provided the right thing.”

LEGACY

When Cheryl Venarge's family gets together during the holidays, they have more to celebrate than what's under the tree.

Each year, the Venarges start the Christmas season with a family giving project involving their six granddaughters. Last year, Sydney, Camryn, Alayna, Abigail, Lauren and Natalie delivered hand-decorated boxes of books and pajamas to kids living at ACCESS homeless shelter, the charity of their choice. Not only did they get the benefit of shopping and wrapping as a family, they also gained immeasurable joy seeing the eyes of children light up as they gave them their gifts.

Over the years, Cheryl and her husband, APV Engineered Coatings owner David Venarge, have worked hard to cultivate the family value of giving back. By directly involving the Venarge children in philanthropy, they're imparting a philosophy that will live on well beyond their lifetime.

In 1999, the couple established the David R. and Cheryl L. Venarge Fund of Akron Community Foundation to give back to the causes they love and to share their values with the people they love. Every summer, Akron Community Foundation hosts their family meeting, where David and Cheryl discuss with their children and grandchildren why they're charitable and the causes they value. But they also listen: both to their younger family members, who help choose the causes they fund, and to the community foundation's staff.

"The staff talks with our entire family about philanthropy," Cheryl said. "And they also listen: to the causes we value; to how we want to carry on our legacy when we're gone; and to how we want to interact with local nonprofits. They even make us aware of programs in line with our family's values."

For Cheryl, that's the gift that keeps on giving. For her granddaughters, it's the one everyone can enjoy. And, for the community, it's one worth celebrating.

PARTNERSHIP

Ted Walter knows a thing or two about relationships. As the local president of Fifth Third Bank, he works hard to serve every aspect of his customers' lives, from personal banking and insurance needs to mortgages and wealth management. "Trust is key," he explained.

In 2012, Fifth Third partnered with Akron Community Foundation to create the Fifth Third Bank Community Investment Account. The fund enables Fifth Third to meet yet another of its customers' needs - philanthropy - while keeping the charitable assets at the bank they've grown to trust.

"It's a great thing for our clients. They can start a charitable fund with a donation of $5,000, and the money never leaves the bank until they make grants," Ted explained. "They can name it however they wish. Plus, Akron Community Foundation can connect them with nonprofits making a difference in our community so clients can make informed funding decisions." Fifth Third is one of six community investment accounts started at banks throughout Greater Akron, including FirstMerit Bank, Huntington Bank, KeyBank, PNC Bank and Premier Bank & Trust.

Ted and his wife, Barb, believe in the Akron Community Foundation partnership so much that they have their own charitable fund, the Ted and Barb Walter Catholic Education Fund of Akron Community Foundation. With it, they support St. Vincent Elementary School, offering scholarships to financially disadvantaged students.

This year, Ted and six other professional advisors helped their clients create new fund relationships with Akron Community Foundation totaling $564,355. We celebrate their passion for building relationships with their clients and the community:

2015 ADVISOR PARTNERS

Ways to Give

Akron Community Foundation makes it easy for you to give: both to start your own charitable fund and to support an existing fund. Whether you're donating cash or complex assets, our staff will work diligently and discreetly with you and your professional advisor to ensure we achieve the greatest benefit for you and the causes you believe in.

GIVE NOW

Are you facing significant tax consequences from the sale of a business? Do you have highly appreciated assets like stock or real estate? Did you recently receive an inheritance, or is your private foundation costing too much? We offer a variety of tax-smart ways to give or to start your charitable fund now.

CASH GIFTS, also payable by check or credit card, offer you the greatest and most immediate tax deduction available under IRS law.

PRIVATE FOUNDATION CONVERSION can help you avoid burdensome and costly administration while continuing your charitable purpose forever. The foundation's 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status results in greater tax benefits and no mandatory payouts.

STOCKS, BONDS AND MUTUAL FUNDS can translate to a charitable deduction for the current market value of your asset, even if you bought it for far less, and may help you avoid paying capital gains tax.

CLOSELY HELD STOCK gifts offer you a charitable deduction for their appraised fair market value and may help you avoid paying related capital gains tax.

REAL ESTATE gifts of home, business or land offer powerful tax benefits, and the foundation's separate LLC can handle your transaction simply and efficiently.

GIVE LATER

Are your assets tied up in your home, IRA or insurance policy? Are you worried you'll outlive your savings? Planned giving may be for you if you're open to a gift that takes place upon your death, provides for your family and loved ones, or guarantees you a lifetime stream of income.

BEQUESTS left via will or trust can help you reduce your estate taxes while supporting your community in a permanent, public way.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITIES offer you stable, secure income while giving you an immediate tax deduction for a portion of your gift.

CHARITABLE LEAD TRUSTS may enable you to transfer appreciating assets to family members tax-free while making gifts to your fund in the interim.

CHARITABLE REMAINDER TRUSTS pay you income for life while offering you an immediate tax deduction for a portion of your gift. You can make additional gifts to the trust as circumstances allow.

CHARITABLE REMAINDER ANNUITY TRUSTS offer you predictable income and an immediate tax deduction for a portion of your gift. They are invested and managed separately, and you avoid all capital gains tax on any appreciated assets you contribute to them. They also reduce your estate tax liability.

DEFERRED GIFT ANNUITIES offer younger donors the charitable benefits of an immediate gift annuity while allowing time for retirement earnings to build before they begin taking payments.

LIFE INSURANCE allows you to make a significant charitable impact at very little cost. Name your fund as a beneficiary and give later. Donate an existing policy and take an immediate tax deduction.

RETIREMENT PLANS, when passed to an heir, are quickly depleted by double taxation. Name your fund as the beneficiary and avoid taxes, leave more to your family, and preserve your hard-earned assets for the good of your community.

Celebrate You!

Akron Community Foundation offers you a variety of charitable fund options so you can celebrate and give back to your favorite causes and charities. Be as involved as you want to be. Recommend grants to your favorite nonprofits right here or across the nation. Or, let our board do the work for you, awarding grants in your fund's name in your chosen area of interest or to the most promising organizations and programs across Summit County.

Create a fund in your name or in the name of your loved one, company or co-worker. Or, remain completely anonymous if you wish. You can start your fund in as little as a day with a tax-deductible gift of $5,000. Really, it's that easy to make a lasting impact.

So, how will you celebrate?

YOURSELF

DONOR-ADVISED FUNDS

Donor-Advised Funds allow individuals, families and businesses to actively recommend grants during their lifetime. These funds are a great alternative to a private foundation and offer many of the same benefits with less administration and cost. Advisory rights can be passed down to multiple generations.

AGENCY ENDOWMENT FUNDS

Agency Endowment Funds guarantee nonprofits a steady stream of financial support toward their charitable missions. Organizations that establish endowment funds benefit from our financial stability and integrity, thus assuring donors that their gifts will be managed prudently.

DESIGNATED FUNDS

Designated Funds can sustain your favorite nonprofit organizations during your lifetime and beyond. A single fund can support one or more charities, and you can designate its grants for the nonprofit's general mission or for a specific program.

WITH HELP

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Scholarship funds enable you, your school or your company to help students continue their education. Reward students for their excellence or help them pursue your chosen field. Support those from a certain school, or fund their endeavors at a specific college, university or vocational school. An initial gift of $25,000 starts your scholarship fund.

FIELD-OF-INTEREST FUNDS

Field-of-Interest Funds have a common theme: preserving our donors' philanthropic passions. You can designate one or more causes for your fund to support, and a community foundation committee will make grants in your fund's name to promising projects in your areas of interest.

UNRESTRICTED FUNDS

Unrestricted Funds are the tool of choice if you want to continually impact the community in timely and relevant ways – but without the personal responsibility of grantmaking. The community foundation handles everything, from choosing the grants to administering the finances, while your fund's name is celebrated throughout the community.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

When a child succeeds in school, that's something we can all celebrate. Our generous scholarship establishers help an array of students pursue success at the post-secondary level. They choose the scholarship qualifications and selection committee. Some serve on the committee, too. And all can celebrate knowing they've moved students one step closer to success – in school and in life.

INITIATIVE FUNDS

Our community is a place of diversity, thanks in part to the support and inspiration of our initiative funds. From empowering women and children in Medina County to advocating for LGBT and minority equality, these funds were started by residents with a passion for a geographic- or issue-specific need. This year, they can celebrate their hard work, which is clearly seen in their $222,598 of collective grants.

BATH COMMUNITY FUND

As a resident and community journalist, Jody Miller Konstand has always celebrated what's good about Bath Township. She and a small group of committed residents wanted future generations of Bath residents to do the same, so they started the Bath Community Fund of Akron Community Foundation, a permanent endowment dedicated to strengthening the Bath community by providing leadership, fostering collaboration, and creating a legacy of charitable giving. Grants from the fund will respond to community needs, help the less fortunate, support local nonprofits, and reinforce and preserve Bath's historical and environmental legacy. Learn more about Bath Community Fund and the "For Bath, Forever" endowment campaign at www.akroncf.org/BCF.

GAY COMMUNITY ENDOWMENT FUND

The Gay Community Endowment Fund celebrates equality and inclusiveness while rallying the local lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community around a common philanthropic cause. This year, the fund awarded 12 grants totaling $43,575 that positively impacted the local LGBT community, as well as Greater Akron as a whole. The Gay Community Endowment Fund accepts grant applications from Aug. 15 to Sept. 15. ## 48TH BERT A. POLSKY HUMANITARIAN AWARD

JOE KANFER

The Bert A. Polsky Humanitarian Award honors one of Akron's greatest civic, cultural and business leaders. Bert Polsky, a founding trustee of Akron Community Foundation, was one of those rare individuals whose creed was faith in people, community service and devotion to family. Each year, Akron Community Foundation gives this special award to the individual or couple who best exemplifies Bert Polsky's selfless dedication to humanitarian causes in Greater Akron.

While Joe Kanfer may be well-known as the chairman and CEO of Akron-based GOJO Industries Inc., he is equally admired for his fierce devotion to philanthropic causes here and around the globe.

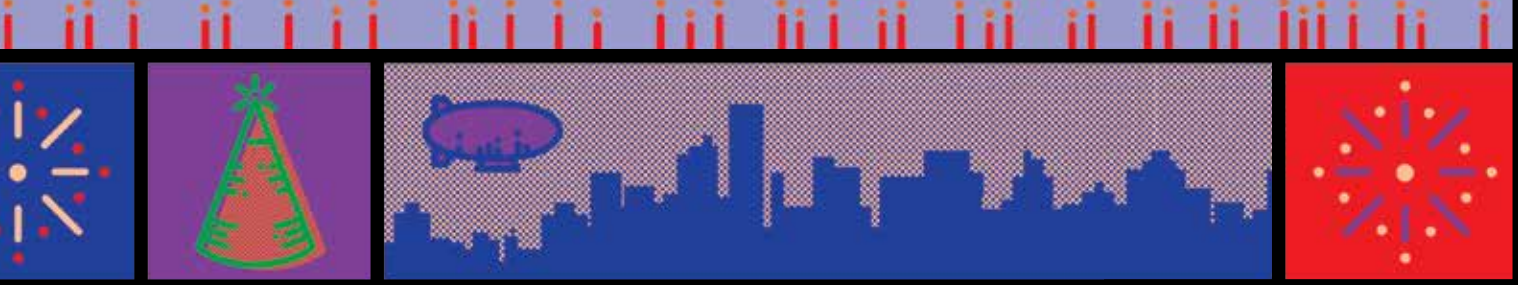

From helping a single individual who is down on their luck to strengthening the Jewish community as a whole as chair of the Jewish Federations of North America, no opportunity to serve his fellow man is too big or too small.

Joe credits his aunt Goldie and uncle Jerry Lippman for teaching him about generosity throughout his life, and he is now leading by their example to make sure his children, grandchildren and even employees understand the importance of giving back.

It is for these reasons that nearly 550 local leaders, business people and philanthropists gathered to celebrate as he received the 48th Bert A. Polsky Humanitarian Award on Oct. 7, 2015 – and announced his creation of the community foundation's 500th fund, the Kanfer Family Fund.

“It doesn't matter what you say, it matters what you do. If we want our children to follow in our footsteps, we better watch where we put our feet.” — Joe Kanfer

FINANCIALS

Akron Community Foundation celebrated an exciting year of growth and giving thanks to the generosity of you, our donors and fundholders.

For the year ending March 31, 2015, our assets grew by nearly $11 million to an all-time high of $191 million. This is thanks to the 37 individuals, families and organizations that established funds, as well as your generous contributions of $13.6 million.

This year also brought the highest single-year grant total in our 60-year history: $9.17 million was distributed to organizations that are working to improve our community every day.

Our investment return for the year was 4.3 percent, bringing our average annualized net return to 9.12 percent since the portfolio's inception in 1989.

Thank you for trusting Akron Community Foundation to prudently invest your charitable contributions so they can grow and continue giving back to the community forever.
